Correcting Inaccurate Statements

Directions: All of the following sentences are incorrect. Rewrite each sentence to make it correct.

1. All of the nations of Central Europe have a seacoast, and all the national capitals are on the coast.

2. Centuries ago, the Indo-European Slavs moved into Western Europe, the Bulgars conquered Bulgaria, and the Magyars took control of present-day Poland.

3. At the end of World War II, the Soviet Union gained control of Eastern Europe, and the Soviet Union remains a strong force in Europe today.

4. Central Europe and Northern Eurasia form a huge region composed of many nations, including the world’s largest nation, Ukraine.

5. A huge plain covers all of Central Europe and Northern Eurasia.

6. The predominant climate of Central Europe is semiarid.

7. Tundra and chaparral ecosystems cover most of Northern Eurasia.

8. Since the 1980s, the economies of Central Europe and Northern Eurasia have generally moved from socialism to communism.