

LSW Leadership Class Code of Conduct

Leadership Class/Student Council members shall:

1. Treat others with dignity and respect.
2. Conduct themselves in a manner that brings credit to themselves, their family, Southwest and the community.
3. Earn and maintain a minimum of a 75% (C +) in Leadership Class each term. Any student who does not earn a minimum term grade of 75% in Leadership Class is subject to removal from Leadership Class.
4. Know and abide by all LSW and LPS Rules/Regulations.
5. Set the highest standards themselves and remember that they are representatives of LSW at all times.
6. Comply with the LSW Athletic/Activities Code of Conduct as well as with the student expectations listed in the Leadership Class Course Description.

Violation of either the LSW Athletic/Activities Code of Conduct or of this LSW Leadership Class Code of Conduct may result in referral to LSW Administration and/or removal from Leadership Class.